RECORD OF THE ANCESTORS

Through Whom the Members of the South Carolina Society Have Entered the Society of the Colonial Dames of America as Approved by the Society's Genealogists

The names in the Record of ancestors marked * are claims in other States but not in South Carolina. Those marked † came into the State, after 1750, and under the revised by-laws are no longer claims.

Thomas Amy, Proprietor's Deputy and Landgrave, Othniel Beale, Privy Councillor, and Sir John Yeamans are omitted; recent discoveries proving them not to be claims.
